CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

At JPGO Limited, we continually strive to ensure we provide you with the highest standard of service. However, we recognise that, on occasion, you may feel you have cause for complaint. If you are unhappy with aspect of the service you have received, we would very much like to know.

With this in mind we have developed a Complaints Procedure that aims to provide you with a swift and satisfactory resolution to any issues you have encountered or problems you may want to draw our attention to.

How does it work?

1. Should you wish to make a complaint, you can do so by letter or email. Full contact details are recorded below.
2. We will endeavour to resolve your complaint immediately, however, if we are unable to do so, we will write to you within 5 working days to acknowledge it has been received and confirm our understanding.
3. We promise to investigate all aspects of your complaint thoroughly and will provide you with a written response as quickly as possible.

Should we be unable to fully respond to all issues within 28 days, we will write to you to explain why this has not been possible, update you on any progress and confirm when we will contact you again.

4. After a further 28 days we will write to you once again, either with a full response or an explanation as to why we are unable to provide this. If we are unable to provide a full response at this stage, we will inform you of any rights you have to refer the matter on.
5. If your complaint relates to how your personal information has been processed and you remain dissatisfied you will be able to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office.
